ABOUT TCWDA

Bob and Lucy Spears started the Tulsa Country Western Dance Association (TCWDA) in the early 90s as a way to further their own dance knowledge and skills, and have taught thousands of students in the Tulsa area the fun of country western dancing ever since.

TCWDA teaches group and private lessons through friendly, patient and professional instruction. Group lessons are held weekly on Tuesday nights at LaFortune Park Community Center in Tulsa. The same kind of dance is taught for the entire month, whether it is Two Step, Triple Two Step (Shuffle) or Country Waltz. Each week the night's lesson is broken into three parts: Beginner, Intermediate and Intermediate-Advanced. Also taught are Nightclub Two Step, Cowboy Cha Cha and line dances. For more info on TCWDA and for class details, visit www.TCWDA.net, email tcwda@att.net or call (918) 663-9963.
